

INTERNATIONAL

EDUCATION

WEEK

November 14–20, 2015
www.towson.edu/iew

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14

Piñata Workshop

10 a.m.–12 p.m. | Center for the Arts Atrium, 2nd Floor

Learn how to make a traditional Mexican piñata with master folk life artists Artesanas Mexicanas. Seating is limited. Contact Dr. Greg Faller (gfaller@towson.edu) to reserve a seat.

Intensive Cambodian Classical Costume-Making Workshop

11 a.m.–5 p.m. | Asian Arts Gallery and Costume Shop, Center for the Arts
Explore the intricate costumes worn in Cambodian classical dance-drama. Pre-registration is recommended; space is limited. www.towson.edu/asianarts/events

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 15

Around the World

6–9 p.m. | Residence Tower Lobby
Experience the cuisines and cultures of TU students at this casual getting-to-know-you-event.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 16

Flag Rotation

12–12:30 p.m. | International Walkway
Watch or participate as the International Walkway flags are rotated in a special, quarterly ceremony.

Faculty Opportunities Abroad

12:30–1:30 p.m. | Psychology 407
Are you interested in leading a study abroad program? Find out all the info you need to know at the information sessions.

Country and Culture Research Workshops

2–3 p.m. OR 3:30–4:30 p.m. | Cook Library 317
Going abroad or just want to learn about other countries? Learn what resources there are to dig into before planning your trip.

"Sounding the Spirit of Cambodia" Gallery Talk

2–3 p.m. | Asian Arts and Culture Center, Center for the Arts

Cambodian Classical Music Workshop

3:30–4:45 p.m. | Center for the Arts Recital Hall
Observe while master musician Chum Ngek and his ensemble offer a crash-course to TU music students in the technique and theory behind the sacred Cambodian pin peat ensemble.

J.A.M. Session

6–8 p.m. | University Union 2nd Floor Lobby
Join an interfaith group of Jewish and Muslim students for a creative interfaith dialogue and free t-shirts.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 17

"New York Times" Talk Lunch and Learn

12–1:30 p.m. | University Union Room 305
Participate in a lively discussion of New York Times global affairs articles over pizza.

"The Pope in Cuba from a Cuban Perspective"

2–3 p.m. | LA 2209
Listen to a presentation by Carydad Morales Nussa on the recent, unprecedented visit of Pope Francis to Cuba.

Mocktails Around the World/Speed Friending

4:30–6:30 p.m. | University Union Patuxent Lounge
Network with members of the TU community over tasty mocktails from around the world.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 18

Study Abroad: Career Services Panel

12–1 p.m. | Career Services Classroom
Learn how studying abroad can boost your chances of landing your dream job and how to market your international experience.

Foreign Languages Fair

12–2 p.m. | University Union Potomac Lounge
Find out all of the foreign language learning opportunities at TU through a host of interactive activities.

Film Screening: "The Illusionists" with Reception and Q&A with the Director

5–9 p.m. | Location West Village Commons Ballrooms
Director Elena Rossini joins the event from Italy after the screening of a documentary about how personal insecurity turned into a multi-billion-dollar industry.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 19

International Sports Workshop: Badminton

12–1:30 p.m. | Burdick Gymnasium 3
Join Campus Rec for an open Badminton session.

Chalk the Flags

1–2 p.m. | Cook Library
How well do you know your world flags? Join Towson Abroad as they chalk world flags outside Cook Library!

Study, Do Research or Teach Abroad: A Fulbright Grant for YOU

5–6 p.m. | LA 2303
Learn about opportunities abroad through the Fulbright program.

ELC 30th Anniversary Celebration

6–9 p.m. | University Union Potomac Lounge
Celebrate 30 years of teaching, learning and creativity at the English Language Center with current and former students. Students will share their cultures as the ELC recognizes their achievements.

International Pub Quiz

9–10 p.m. | PAWS Café
The Office of Student Activities' weekly Trivia Night has gone abroad! Join TU Study Abroad for a night of questions from around the world to get a taste of what awaits you on your next international adventure.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 20

Multi-Lingual StrengthsQuest

12–1:30 p.m. | Psychology 407
Join the Office of Civic Engagement and Leadership to explore your personal strengths in another language and through another lens.

Diversity Action Committee Education and Scholarship Series - International Students in Our Classrooms: Challenges and Tips

2–3:30 p.m. | Psychology 407
A workshop designed for faculty to understand and find creative strategies to engage and address the particular needs of international students in the classroom.

International Café

7–10 p.m. | PAWS Café
Check out a showcase of local and global on-campus talent with delicious international cuisine hosted by the International Student Association.

ON-GOING EVENTS

International Book Display

Daily, 9–5 p.m. | Cook Library
Check out literature from around the world in a display hosted in Cook Library.

Study Abroad Info Sessions

Daily, 2 p.m. | Psychology 407
Learn tips, deadlines and what you can expect when you study abroad through Towson University.

Sounding the Spirit of Cambodia: Khmer Music and Dance-drama in a Mid-Atlantic Community

Monday–Friday, 11 a.m.–4 p.m.; Saturday, 1–4 p.m. | Asian Arts Gallery, Center for the Arts
FREE
Encounter the beauty, history, meanings, and transformations of an ancient Cambodian tradition in the lives of musicians, dancers, and community members in Maryland, Virginia, and Washington, D.C.
This exhibition is part of The Asia in Maryland (AIM) Cultural Connection, featuring local Asian American communities and their artistic and cultural work.

